

A LANDSLIDE.

ELECTION RETURNS FROM THE COUNTRY AT LARGE.

The Author of the McKinley Tariff Bill Retired to Private Life After a Hard Struggle.

Cannon Snowed Under in the State of Illinois—The New York State Legislature in Doubt—Nebraska Doubtful.

The Republicans Save a Congressman in Missouri and Claim Two in Arkansas—The Illinois Legislature in Doubt With Chances in Favor of the Democrats.

CANTON, O., Nov. 5.—At noon today the revised figures on fifty-eight of sixty-four precincts in Stark county, and close estimates on the balance of the county give McKinley a net gain of 2,038 and a plurality of 1,960. This makes a net gain of 2,038 and a plurality of 1,960. This makes a net gain of 2,038 and a plurality of 1,960. This makes a net gain of 2,038 and a plurality of 1,960.

WOOSTER, Ohio, Nov. 5.—Wayne county gives Warlick, Democrat, for congress, a majority of 400 over McKinley.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Times-Star has a special dispatch from Canton, Ohio, dated 8:30, saying that the estimate there made for the Sixteenth district election Warlick, Democrat, by 344.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 5.—A special from Canton says that there is little doubt or no doubt of McKinley's defeat. The official count will, however, be necessary to satisfy the Republicans.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 5.—McGee returns received at Republican and Democratic state headquarters indicate the election of fourteen Democratic congressmen. This estimate includes the defeat of McKinley in the Sixteenth district and Foster in the Eighth.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—Bellamy Storer, Republican, for congress, First district, has a majority of 2,381. In the Second district John A. Caldwell, Republican, is re-elected by a majority of 7,612.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—A private dispatch states that Ex-Governor Patterson concedes the election of his opponent, Hare, Democrat, in the Eighth district by 130.

FIFTY, Ohio, Nov. 5.—Hare's majority over Foster is about 300.

CANTON, O., Nov. 5.—McKinley's great gain of 2,700 on tonight lacks 147 of electing him. The latest from Holmes with estimates on two of the precincts give Warlick 1,960 plurality. Wayne goes 360 for Warlick. Medina goes for McKinley by a plurality of 1,338 and Stark, his home county, with a gain of over 2,000, gives 550 for McKinley. The official count may change the result.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—According to returns, so far as received at 6 p. m., the Ohio congressmen elected are:

First district—Bellamy Storer, Republican.

Second district—John A. Caldwell, Republican.

Third district—George W. Honeck, Democrat.

Fourth district—M. K. Gantz, Democrat.

Fifth district—F. Clayton.

Sixth district—D. D. Donavin, Democrat.

Seventh district—W. H. Haines, Democrat.

Eighth district—D. D. Hare, Democrat.

Ninth district—J. B. Outhwaite, Democrat.

Tenth district—Robert E. Doane, Republican.

Eleventh district—J. M. Patterson, Democrat.

Twelfth district—W. H. Kury, Democrat.

Thirteenth district—Irvin Dungan, Democrat.

Fourteenth district—J. W. Owens, Democrat.

Fifteenth district—M. D. Harter, Democrat.

Sixteenth district—J. G. Warlick, Democrat.

Seventeenth district—A. J. Pearson, Democrat.

Eighteenth district—E. B. Taylor, Republican.

Nineteenth district—E. B. Taylor, Republican.

Twentieth district—V. C. Taylor, Republican.

Twenty-first district—Thomas L. Johnson, Democrat.

This makes seven Republicans and fourteen Democrats. At this writing, however, the election of Hare and Warlick is not established by complete returns, and the apparent majority in each case is so small as to make it unsafe to claim an election until the official count is made.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 5.—Ex-Governor Foster concedes his defeat in the Eighth district by a small majority. However, Democrat, will have about 300 majority.

WOOSTER, Ohio, Nov. 5.—Returns from the slowest of returns from two precincts the official count could not be made to-day. Warlick will have 301 majority over McKinley. Crawford will have 192.

This is based on returns received at Democratic headquarters.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—At the headquarters of the Republican central committee, the legislature is claimed by six to ten, on a plurality which, if true, means the election of a Republican senator to succeed Farwell, Republican.

The Evening Journal's Danville, Ills., special says Congressman Cannon has received substantially all returns from his district, and concedes his defeat by 300 to 500.

DANVILLE, Ills., Nov. 5.—T. T. Buckingham, Republican, chief clerk of the Illinois house of representatives, and an intimate friend of Congressman Cannon, at the request of the Associated Press, estimates that Cannon carries the Illinois county by about 400. Busey, Democrat, carries Edgar county by 400, and Douglas by 250. Colles county has not been heard from. The indications are that Cannon is beaten by a small majority.

ASHELY, Ills., Nov. 5.—Foreman's (Democrat) majority for congress is estimated at 3,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The following are the congressmen elected from the state of Illinois:

First district—Abner Taylor, Republican.

Second district—Lawrence E. McMann, Democrat.

Third district—Allen E. Durburner, Democrat.

Fourth district—Walter C. Newberry, Democrat.

Fifth district—Albert J. Hopkins, Republican.

Sixth district—Robert R. Hitt, Republican.

Seventh district—Thomas J. Henderson, Republican.

Eighth district—Charles A. Hill, Republican.

Ninth district—Lewis Payson, Republican.

Tenth district—Philip S. Post, Republican.

Eleventh district—Benjamin T. Cable, Democrat.

Twelfth district—Scott Wike, Democrat.

Thirteenth district—William M. Springer, Democrat.

Fourteenth district—Owen Scott, Democrat.

Fifteenth district—T. Busey, Democrat.

Sixteenth district—George W. Fithian, Democrat.

Seventeenth district—Edward Lane, Democrat.

Eighteenth district—William S. Foreman, Republican.

Nineteenth district—James R. Williams, Democrat.

Twentieth district—George R. Smith, Republican.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Later returns from the Sixteenth congressional district of Illinois indicate that the Democratic congressman, Fithian, has been defeated by Reader, the Farmers' Mutual Benefit candidate, by a majority of 296. This is probably enough to express an opinion on the result of the election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Calvin S. Brice telegraphs Chairman Phelps, of the Central Democratic committee, "Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen Democratic congressmen, a gain of nine. McKinley and Foster both defeated."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The Democrats do not concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. General John M. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, telegraphs the Associated Press as follows: "My information is yet too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election."

ty-seven assemblymen in this state and the Republicans fifty-nine. Two districts are still somewhat in doubt, with a probability in favor of the Republicans. To secure a majority on joint ballot, the Democrats require sixty-eight, and the Republicans sixty-two, as the Republicans have nineteen senators and the Democrats thirteen. It looks, therefore, like a close joint ballot. A United States senator depends upon the result.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Returns from Cooperstown to the effect that the Hon. Lorn, Democrat, is elected to congress in the Twenty-fourth district.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—New York's delegation in the Fifty-second congress, should Combs be defeated, will consist of twenty Democrats and fourteen Republicans.

Third—Andrew McDonald, Democrat. This just reverses the position of the two parties, represented in the Fifty-first congress, where the Republicans have twenty and the Democrats fourteen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Francis M. Scott, the defeated candidate for mayor of the fusion ticket, speaking of the election day attributed his defeat to the anti-McKinley feeling which, he said, was stronger in this city than in any other part of the country.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—For the congressional districts the certainties at 2:30 a. m. were: First—Randall, Republican.

Second—Morse, Republican.

Third—Andrew McDonald, Democrat.

Fourth—O'Neill, Democrat.

Fifth—Hoar, Democrat.

Sixth—Lodge, Republican.

Seventh—Coppess, Republican.

Eighth—Stevens, Democrat.

Twelfth—Crosby, Democrat.

The districts remaining were the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh, and the results were in doubt.

The Ninth district is very close. In the Tenth Walker, Republican, appears to be elected. In the Eleventh, the Democrat, seems to be elected on a very close vote.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Walker, Republican, is elected to congress in the Tenth district by a plurality of 60.

The governor's council stands seven Republicans and one Democrat.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The vote for governor has been received from every town in the state except Fox-Id and the figures show an overwhelming Democratic victory.

The senate will consist of 24 Republicans and 19 Democrats, and the house will consist of 139 Republicans and 100 Democrats and 1 Independent Democrat. This is a Republican loss of 8 in the senate and 23 in the house.

The congressional delegation stands seven Democrats, seven Republicans, a gain of five Democrats.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—The result in Wisconsin is still a matter of doubt, and will not be known until night. From present appearances, the whole state will be Republican.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Charles O'Connell, chairman of the Democratic State central committee, claims Boyd's election by from 1,000 to 1,200 majority. He claims all the congressmen and claims state ticket.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 5.—The election of W. J. Bryan, Democrat, over W. J. Connelley, Republican, from the First district, and Wm. McKim, Democrat, and Alliance candidate, in Second district, over N. V. Harlan, Republican, is now conceded. The Third district is still in doubt